Pink is emotionally soothing and calming, and gives a feeling of warmth and nurturing. It lessens feelings of irritation and aggression, surrounding us with a sense of love and protection. Alleviates loneliness, despondency, oversensitivity and vulnerability. While red relates to sexuality, pink is associated with unselfish love.

*Interpretation by Kraus & König:
Once again promotion for the change of struggle and "self-defence" to a mutually agreeable "togetherness".
Comment of the customer:
That all sounds very good.
