

Thank you letter from the actor Hubertus:

I am delighted to comply with the request of Mr. Urbatschek to list the results during the treatment time with QUANTEC[®], and would like to be the first to express my thanks for the outstanding support. I consent to my statement being published under my forename only.

Although I believe myself to be open to new technologies, I was inwardly a little sceptical about the use of QUANTEC[®]. It was quite a different matter for me when in June 2009 I took part in the active seminar "E-Motion" conducted by Mr. Urbatschek, in order to prepare myself with this seminar for my desired success. After I myself had discovered deeply ingrained, emotional sabotage programmes and transformed them almost like child's play, I arrived immediately at a completely different energy level (as a conscious basis for my future growth), after which I was able to experience my own personality very clearly.

From August 2009 I used a telephone coaching service with Mr. Urbatschek, who in this way took me by the hand for a time, in a manner of speaking. The advantage is that after every session, I made myself take the next few small steps, actively and measurably, towards the next session. The first successes came relatively quickly, thereby strengthening my belief in myself. I sensed as a new conviction was created within me: Yes, if I do it this way, then it will work.

In September 2009 I unexpectedly had a 3-month acting course paid for. Then I obtained 2 days filming work for a cinema film in Zürich. During this stay, I thanked myself on a sudden impulse that I had received € 10,000 by the end of the year. 10 minutes after expressing this wish, I received a call in Zürich inviting me to take part in a casting, ... with the result that in December, I won this film part from amongst the original 150 applicants, together with the bonus of Sfr. 10,000.

During the same time, I had also found my dream apartment and signed the contract. I still didn't know how I was going to pay for it, but I had a good feeling that a way would be found.

With the money from Switzerland, I was finally able to take some great steps forward in my career: Optimisation of my homepage, new photos, new demo tape, etc. Then I was called by a new agency and put under contract. The number of enquiries increased noticeably, bringing with them major roles in the theatre, on TV and in films.

I felt myself to be fully aware, so that I was able to interpret minor setbacks as messages that there was still something which I had to improve. I revised my former attitude with regard to castings, which meant that I had much more fun in my jobs, and the money seemed to flow in as if by itself.

In December 2010 I had used another personal coaching with Mr. Urbatschek for a "fine tuning", with the result that the year 2011 began so well that I can now also live independently from my many acting engagements.

Looking back on the last one-and-a-half years, I can safely say that my whole world has changed. I have increased my opportunities as an actor enormously, and now receive offers which I could only dream of before. QUANTEC[®] has supported me enormously in my career and private life, making possible many things which were previously inconceivable. I can only say that anybody who wants to achieve something should make use of it, because it makes everything happen so much more quickly. It is like an emotional turbo-charger running in the background.

Thank you very much!
